

In the United States Court District for the Western District of Missouri Western Division

United states : Case #: 4:21-cr-00281-GAF Plaintiff : Prosecutorial misconduct vs. : Testimonial witness Thomas W. Pitts : vindictive Prosecution Defendant : True Bill foreman signed misuse of Grand Jury Proceeding Defendant Thomas Pitts Motion to Dismiss

Comes now Defendant Thomas Pitts and for his motion states:

1. Defendant Pitts hereby requests that all charges
Be Dismissed Due to Facially Invalid Indictment Specific Agreement not alleged.

2. Defendant Pitts requests that all Grand Jury Transcript be reviewed By the Court and then handed over in a timely manner to also be reviewed By the Defendant, Rule 6(e)(3)(E)(ii)

3. Defendant Pitts claims that the Prosecutor has used over charging techniques to overstate the alleged charges of Defendant Pitts, Allowing witnesses they know or should know are not Truthful to testify.

4. Defendant Pitts also feels that the prosecutor used Overstating hearsay methods By overstating the strength of the evidence to get the indictment and flat out hear-say to get the Defendant Indicted and may of used improper or misleading statement to acquie the Defendants Indictment. Surplusage allegations that are irrelevant. Rule 7(d)
5. Defendant Pitts also sees the need to take a closer Look at the Grand Jury Transcripes Because of not only ~~the~~ the prosecutors overcharging methods But also Bootstrap methods to over charge Defendant Pitts by using a single felony charge twice to support an additional felony charge.
